THE following Association of his Majesty's Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, having been transmitted by Sir Arthur Owen, Bart. County of Pembroke.

The Association of his Majesty's Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, entred into this 14th Day of January, 1745.

WE His Majesty's Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, animated with a just Sense of Duty and Gratitude to our most gracious King, and from our Hearts abhorring that execrable Rebellion in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender, which hath already with uncommon Cruelty ravag'd and plunder'd the Northern Parts of our dear Country, stirred up by desperate and evil minded Men at Home, influenced and abetted by the avowed Enemies of our Religion and Peace Abroad, and evidently calculated to introduce Popery and Slavery, and consequently to deprive us of every Thing valuable to us as Protestants and Britons; do hereby voluntarily enter into an Association and solemn Engagement, by all the Means in our Power, to defend the sacred Person of our only lawful Sovereign King George, to support his undoubted Right and Title to the Crowns of these Realms, and to protect and secure this our County against the wicked Attempts of all Invaders, Rebels and Pretenders whatsoever.

Hague, Feb. 15, N. S. The Republick has permitted the Austrians, in their March from the Rhine to the Netherlands, to pass through her Territory without paying ready Money, and sent a Quarter-master to the Meuse with Ten thousand Florins to help them forwards, and Twenty thousand more to the Prince of Waldeck, to be apply'd to their Uses upon their joyning him, which it is hoped they may do To-morrow.

Creif, Feb. 5. This Day his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arrived here, and will march To-morrow for Perth; the further Motions of his Army will depend upon Accounts of those of the Rebels. At this Place the whole of the Rebel Army disbanded, and marched in three separate Corps; the Clans over the Tay Bridge towards their Hills again; the Lowlanders of Bamph and Angus-shire, are gone towards Dunkeld with four cover'd Waggons and seven Pieces of Cannon, (which are all they have remaining, as they have left 15 Pieces of Cannon nailed up at Perth, and have also destroyed there what Ammunition they had) and the Person called Lord John Drummond, with all the Irish and other Troops that came from France, is gone for Aberdeen, as they give out. To amuse us, they pretend they are to join again, and to attack Lord Loudoun or Inverness. This Day we began marching through some of the Drummond's, Strathallan's, and other disaffected Persons Estates.

Dublin, January 21.

Yesterday being the Birth-day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired at his Majesty's Park the Phœnix, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lord Lieutenant received the Compliments of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, who appeared at the Castle upon this Occasion, dressed in the Manufactures of this Kingdom: At Night there was a Play given by his Excellency for the Entertainment of the Ladies, who were very numerous, and likewise dressed in the Manufactures of Ireland; after which there was a Ball at the Castle.
